On Trial for Assaulting an Officer. Barnes, the colored man who was shot by Officer Slack during the riot in Ragtown by Officer Slack during the riot in Ragtown some weeks ago, was on trial in the police court yesterday for assaulting the officer. The officer described the fight, and said his revolver was accidentally discharged. Sergt, Slattery testiled that he went with Slack to arrest two women for stealing clothes. Special Officer Anderson corroborated Officer Slack, and Dr. Meriam testiled that he attended Officer Slack, in the defendant's attorney claimed an acquittal, but the court said that the officer was justified in making the arrest, and if pressed too closely he had a right to use his pistol. The court was charitably inclined toward the old man, and continued the case for sentence, taking the prisoner's bonds.

A Splendid Response to an Honest Effort!

Hundreds of people have called and availed themselves of the MARKED-DOWN PRICES that went into effect on Monday last. We are selling the same class of goods we have sold for years—we say selling, for there were just two people who could not see any bargain in a child's The "Palais Royal" Kid Gloves $9 Suit marked down to $6-so we say we are selling, not giving away. The increased sales, the hundreds of satisfied people, tell the story than any words do. They show the people are satisfied—that when we cry "Wolf," the wolf's at the door. They show that people discriminate between a sale of the kind of Clothing we have and the slop-shop stuff annually sold under various pleas. It shows that a stock double as large as any other, and fully as large as a half dozen of many others, cannot be thrown upon the market

At the Prices We Are Quoting

Without a response from the public. Mind you, it is not the first custo mers who get first choice, for the stock is of the reliable kind, the best we know how to make. The earlier you come the better the variety. Why, it's absolutely presenting you with just so much money, for every dollar we mark down is an absolute gift, for we guarantee at all times that the marked price on our garments is the lowest, giving you the privilege of returning same and having the money refunded if you can do better elsewhere. They are not trash, such as is used to decoy trade, specimens of which were sent us a few days ago subject to our approval, because the manufacturer had seen our announcement of "Closing Sale," and, as he

"I Send You These, as They Are Great to Advertise."

They consist of a lot of Chinchilla Overcoats, the worst we ever saw-a Man's Overcoat at $3-it's the kind usually advertised as worth $10 and sold at $5. They may be worth 20 cents a pound, but we don't think they are. He also sent some Suits which might fit those who are "fearfully and wonderfully made;" but a lot of Pantaloons at $1.15, for men, cap the climax. They are the regulation $2 kind. Whoever spends a nickel for this kind of trash is a nickel out of pocket. To-day, and as we have done for years, we stand ready to back any statements we make in selling goods. Don't let the idea enter your mind that, because we are naming

Extraordinary Low Prices

for the class of goods we handle, they are not up to our highest standard. We must close out every dollar's worth of goods before we open the New Store, and we have found that "the price tells, and everybody tells the price," is more than a proverb. Every day lessens the assortment.
